SO

“ Dear “Sis” I truly miss you. The talks we had everyday for almost two years. As my big sister I remember you doing my hair when I was little in Floyd Terrace, cause mama couldn’t, and how we grew up in Vallejo and talked everyday, and how you got me to go to Friendship Baptist Church on Florida Street there in Vallejo. When you married and moved to Texas in 2022, we still talked 2-3 times a day. Our last conversation, when you told me “you know sis, all this is not about me.” You were right. It’s ok! So I know you are resting in “the arms of Jesus” and walking through the streets of gold, that you’re finally at peace and yes, you are loved of God! I love you “Sis” 🧡🙏
