“ My Big Brother at work, words can't express how I'm feeling right now. I never thought this day would come. You were the first to congratulate me on getting hired at the VA over 20 years ago. I was just 20 years old then. Not knowing the place I made my career at, the people there would become my work family. We all shared a bond that no one could break, not even us and our own crazy ways. All the stories I heard about the grand kids, great grands, great great grands. How you loved them kids. What I loved about you was that you loved your daughters like a father should, I thank you for letting me see that. Even though they do not live in Cali you made sure you were apart of there life. I loved how you supported your grandson and helped him to recovery when he was wounded and down. It's truly a blessing to see a Black Man show love to the younger male generation, you did that. Oh how i felt sorry for Mrs. Lola when you retired she was gone have to put up with you all day lol, but I'm sure the honey do list kept you busy. Good job Mrs. Lola. I'm gonna miss our group chat's You, Me and Larry had. Keeping up with one another, You cussing Larry and making us all laugh. It really does hurt to know you not here anymore but my memories will keep me smiling.... I miss you brother aka "DAN THE MAN" from the "NEW SHERIFF IN TOWN. Mrs. Lola my prayers are going out to you and the WHOLE family. The VA FAMILY is here for you, I will be keeping in touch, LOVE YOU and see you soon.
