“ Mrs. Cooley, I want you to know I miss you! As Easter approaches, I will gather to feast and fellowship with family and friends it will not be the same because I will not be able to visit with you but I treasure ALL of the time we spent together laughing, eating, praying, reading the scripture and you sharing sound wisdom with scripture and some humor added. I will continue to "HANG ON AND HANG IN THERE".

“ "Listen"

*You can shed tears that I am gone
Or you can smile because I lived a full life.
You can close your eyes, pray and wish I was still here
Or you can open your eyes and see all that I left.
Your heart can be sad, empty because you can't see me
Or you can be full of love and thankful that we shared a family bond and that love and spirit is still lingering in all of you!*

*Just, "hold on", open up your hearts and let "My God" in.
Remember, "I wouldn't take nothing for my God".*

“ Key characteristics of Elnorah Cooley, a Virtuous Woman:

Scripture reference: Proverbs 31:10-31

Priceless and true: Her value is "far above rubies," and her husband can safely trust her.

Hardworking and diligent: She works willingly with her hands, rises early to provide for her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Wise and prudent: She "girds herself with strength," considers a field and buys it, and plants a vineyard from her profits.

Kind and compassionate: She stretches out her hand to the poor and the needy.

A source of strength: She is clothed with strength and dignity, and her husband is respected because of her.

A wise communicator: Her speech is full of wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness.

Praised for her actions: Her children and husband praise her, and her works are what bring her praise in the gates.

Rooted in faith: The passage concludes by stating that "charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised".
