“ I knew her as a woman with a pleasant smile who truly loved and supported her grandchildren. :) I'm shocked to hear of her passing and sad for all of those who love her.

One thing we can all do is love others in the way you felt most loved by her.

RIP Ms. Joyce. <3

“ Ms. Joyce
You will be missed dearly. I've had the pleasure of knowing you over 18years! You have always been around for my cousin Lisa and Cortney from every moment i can remember! You were such a sweet lady and always wore a glowing smile. That smile would light up a room, it was contagious ! Cortney had such a special bond with you And loved you so much, my heart hurts for him. It's grandmothers like you who help to raise their grandkids and be present in their lives that makes them who they are. May you rest peacefully 🙏

“ Ms. Joyce was a real life QUEEN. Her essence and spirit were regal. Her smile would, could and did light up every room she entered. When we first met even before Corey and Cortney were born we could tell she was going to be a "Super Granny" because of the way she loved Little Ayman and all the kids. We saw her at every major event and she always asked how we were, how Shantel was doing in school, she just genuinely made us feel loved. Her voice was melodic and calming too, even if there were storms raging around her she was always so calm and anchored. I know the family is feeling the magnitude of the indescribable hole her absence will leave and we are sending love and strength to you all. Ms. Joyce left an indelible mark on everyone she touched and we are all better from having been in her presence. Rest in Power QUEEN!! Love, Kim and Shantel

“ Joyce was an exceptional beautiful young lady who became an even more beautiful granny, mother, mother-in-law and friend. She always greeted me with a breathtaking smile, a hug and inquiry after mutual friends or relatives. She had a kind word for everyone. Joyce did not have an easy life, but she taught me to face adversity with grace and a smile no matter how how difficult. I wish I would've taken you to Hawaii. You deserved to see paradise on earth, now you will be in paradise for eternity.
