“ Kim, tomorrow it will be 2 years since God called you home. Your brother and I miss you so very much. I miss you the way you can say the most hilarious things with such ease. We had so many plans with you in them. We hoped we could have all traveled together and we hoped for another Monterey Jazz weekend getaway. I miss you Sister in Love.

“ Kimberly was my younger sister and one of my beloved best friend. My life forever changed on May 24, 2021. I loved my sister and miss her so much. She was beautiful, smart, caring, giving, and loving. She had a great sense of humor and I enjoyed hanging out with her. I will always love and miss my sister. I am very grateful to know that she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. That gives me peace knowing that she is now with her Heavenly Father. She is ok. I just miss her so much. I love you Kim. I will see you again, one day. Love Jr ❤️❤️❤️
