“ This man was not just a father. My friend, my brother, but somebody that anybody could look up to I know it's a little man. I made it when I was a child and the lego California. He was always working on his impala that his father left behind. I remember hanging out on Betty Cor anything I have needed or asked this man will help me with even as a child little man, as we all know him had a great heart. I don't know how many times I have planned to this man I pick and pull, but I can say he always keeps a smile on his face. He see me and always Yell out 'what up booiyy'... I can believe he's gone. I always thought I was gonna run into my pickup pull again Just know that.

We're down here. Still trying to get up there Little man, so save a spot for us and tell Bernadette. We missed her too. God bless you, brother if anybody else read this. Please keep Prayers out for the family and for him. With respect jose rodriguez from betty court.
