“ I worked with Devon a few years ago when he was a new journeyman. He was a very methodical and intelligent worker and I was not happy the day the job ended and he was laid off.

I am shocked by his passing. May the Lord allow the family and friends the comfort they need during such a sad time.

“ I worked with Degion a little less then a year.. This man definatly made an impression on me . Super smart better then that he was full of wisdom. Mondays would be safety meeting day where we all gathered. Our foreman would always say " why can't you guys be more like Degion"! I always replied "I'm trying it's not that easy "! D if your listening, know we will be in the background if your family especially young ones need anything .

“ He was the only person I met that knew as much about baseball as I did. In disbelief.
