“ I have known of Wilfred M. Owens since I was a teenager living in San Francisco. I like many others, got to know him when KSOL had a "dedication line" in which callers to the station would dedicate songs to their hear throbs. No one did it better than Wilfred, he became a teenage celebrity, which led to employment at KSOL with Sly Stone, and KDIA, KGO, and other communication venues. I got to know Wilfred personally decades ago, and we kept in touch, voicing our opinions about society, music, and of course his time as a DJ. I communicated with Wilfred a couple of weeks ago, and was surprised and saddened when I heard the news of his passing. I want to express my sincere condolences to his Wife June, his children and Grandchildren. He will be missed.
