“ Dearest Yolie, I'll never forget your bright, beautiful smile and the kindness you shown everyone that had the pleasure to know you. I was so fortunate to have worked with you for so many years with our Med 8 work fam. We had the best times & I'll cherish the memories always. I am also so grateful to have talked with you recently & ended our conversation with I love you! ❤️ Rest in peace my friend XO Annie Hartman

“ Ms Yolie,
Thank you for being a great woman, a mentor and even like an Auntie to me. You showed us what it means to show up to work and care for others. You always kept it real and never sugar coated anything. You had a laugh and smile I will never forget. It has been years since I have seen you, but you always remained someone I valued and respected. Your sweet spirit will truly be missed. It saddened my heart to hear of your sudden passing. I hope that you can rest peacefully. You will never be forgotten; I will cherish the memories I had with you forever. Keeping your family lifted in prayer and close at heart.

“ Yolanda, you we're a sweetheart. You were a beautiful person inside and out. Whenever we came across each other, you always give the warmest hugs that i can remember within my heart. Also, sharing my kids with you and hearing about your niece. Those talks that we have, reminds me of your biggest smile and warm heart that your have. I had tears when i heard of your passing. I will remember you now and til day forward. Thank you for being a sweet friend of mine. You will always have a special place in my heart. May you rest peacefully in paradise. Until, we meet again.

With Love,

“ Yolanda (Carmel),
My heart is heavy since hearing of your passing. Your spirit captivated me on my first day as a student in medicine 8. Medicine 8 and Nephrology were staffed with the most amazing, strong willed, and admirable ladies and I learned so much from them; however, it was your smile, humor, professionalism, and nurturing spirit that kept me motivated to become the best employee I could be. I owe my work ethic to you. Although you not being here is devastating, I take solace in knowing we will all see you again and that I still have vivid memories of you smiling and laughing. It is a true blessing to have had you as a friend. Love you. I will miss you!

“ Auntie, the best aunt that I could ever ask for. You raised me, I looked up to you as a mother. You did any and everything for me, we did everything together, and you have taught me so many things that I value in life.

From cooking to cleaning. To being respectful, professional and proud to just be myself, you loved me for me and always wanted the best for me. I will miss your beautiful smile, laugh and hugs. I'll miss sleeping in bed with you, I always had my own bed but sleeping beside you was always the best. From my first dentist appointment to my first tattoo, which was your name. To my first vacation, trip to the beach etc. I pretty much did everything first with you. This will be my first birthday without you. You were always the first person to tell me hbd. One regret I have is not getting our passports and leaving the states together. I owed you a trip to the islands. So I'll make sure when I go it's in your honor. I have so many regrets that I wish I could have done more, if I could just have you forever I'd do anything. I'll hold the memories we have fond to my heart. Like, getting on my first plane with you was scariest thing but you made sure I was ok. You always made sure I was straight, no matter what. I could call on you for anything. I'll miss our long conversations, secrets, advice and lifelong memories. I keep thinking you're still here when I wake up. Then I come to realize you're not. You taught my daughter so many things and loved her unconditionally. That meant so much to me the way you made my bed up so nice with brand new comforters and a bassinet for my baby when it was time to come home from the hospital, holding my hand and never leaving my side when I gave birth. I'll never forget it. I think about each and every moment we spent together. I had you for 30 years of my life. Me, you and Sanai were the three amigos. It's always been us for almost ten years and I don't know how I'm going to do this without you but I know you raised me to be strong, smart and to keep this legacy alive it's just so hard for me to say goodbye. I'd do anything to have you here by my side - to the queen of my heart. The strongest woman i know, F%[k cancer! I'll see you in heaven with our angels.

I LOVE YOU AND I WILL MISS YOU 4EVER!

“ My dear friend Yolanda,

I still can not believe that your gone 💔 I feel so blessed to have called you my friend. I'll never forget your way of putting people in their place with grace, courage and dignity, especially to the ones who had to "question" our friendship. True we were of different color, we had differences, but as time unraveled, it was evident that our differences were the glue that held us together. I was truley blessed to have your beautiful presence to grace my wedding party. Your infectious smile, your deep compassion and kindness will be missed beyond comprehension. You were beyond a shadow of doubt, a borrowed angel, and I am blessed to have been a part of your life. Thank you for the memories that we shared, I will treasure them forever. Till we meet again my friend...

Love you,
